Description :

PDF-8955d | “I will make you the greatest living artist in all of England! But you must work very hard at your art, and you must decide between your art and your work with the poor.” This was the choice that John Ruskin, the celebrated Victorian art critic, presented to the young Lilius Trotter. With a storyteller’s eye and ear, Sally Oxley traces the steps that led up to this turning point in Lilius Tr... Lily: The Girl Who Could See
